Many Aspirants for Places on the Team and Plenty of Good Material to Pick From.

The "Spiders" of 1900 will doubtless be well up in the forerank of State football, well up in the forerank of State football, as well as in general athletics.

Coach Edward B. Kenna, full back on the '96 Georgetown University football ceam, which played Virginia Military Institute in this city, has been engaged, and has entered upon his duties with an evident determination to place Richmond among the first 'pig skin rushers' in the Southern colleges. After ten years of practical experience in football, and a good number of seasons coach, Mr. Kenna is number of seasons coach, Mr. Kenna is the right man for Richmond College. Mr. Kenna is a graduate of Mount St. Mary's College and a graduate student Mary's College and a graduate student of Georgetown.

Aside from sustaining an envisole presuge in football and baseball circus of amateur athletics, Mr. Keena is a literary man of no mean attainments. While at Georgetown his verse was well manifest in the monthly magazine and his short stories added much to the attractiveness of the paper. The New York Sun of some weeks back published the following song written by Mr. Kenna while at Georgetown.

The duel role of athlete and literary disciple is at least an unique one.

A HUNTING SONG.

Huntin' time's a-comin',

For I hear the pheasans drummin',

An' the chestnut burs' is turnin' on the
south side of the tree,

An' the "whicker, whicker, whicker"
Of a raspin' screamin' flicker
Comes a-driftin' from the mountain top across the crick to me.

Bob White is a-whistlin'
An' circlin' hawks are listenin',
Where they slowly sail a-watchin' all the country underneath.
The hazel nuts is turnin'
An' my hungry heart's a-yearnin'
For the whirr of birds, the bark of gun

'cross the broom sage covered heath Why, it was this very mornin'

That I had a sign—a warnin'
That the squirrefs are here a-cuttin'
wherever must is found;
For I found, and I wasn't tryin', A hickory-nut shell lyin'

Fresh cut and eaten hollow right in the foot-trod ground.

Lord, I'm glad the time's a-comin'! For there's lots of fun a-bummin' Through the autumn woods a dreamin' an'

a-huntin' all the day.
When a feller's kinder lazy.
An' the golden days are hazy.
An' the whisperin' breeze has conjured all his troubles far away. Yes; the huntin' time's a-comin',

For I hear the pheasants drummin',
And the chestnut burns are turnin' on the
south side of the tree.
The hazel nuts are turnin'

The nazel nuts are turnin,
An' my hungry heart's a-yearnin'
For the woods, where man is master, an'
his every thought is free.

The feature of the day was Jockey Henwils glear work. He rode three winners The feature of the day was Jockey Henry's clever work. He rode three winners and one placed horse. His followers reaped a harvest. Imp was scratched from the Oriental, and Jack Point was then made a hot favorite, with Gonfalon next in demand. Charentus, the outsider in the betting, upset calculations. Well handled by Burns, he made all the running and won easily from Gonfalon, who closed fast after dropping out of it on the far turn, and beat Jack Point for the place. Summary:

First race-about six furlongs-Telamon (5 to 1) first, Frey (5 to 1 and 2 to 1) second, Red Path (13 to 5) third. Time, 1:104-5.

MR. HAY SPOKE.

Addressed Democrats of Surry and Essex in Waverly.

Essex in Waverly.

(Special Dispatch to The Times.)

WAVERLY, VA., Sept. 29.—A well-attended meeting of the Democrats of Surry and Sussex counties was held here to-day in the Town Hall. County Chairman Faison presided and introduced as the first speaker Hon. James Hay, of Madison county. Mr. Hay discussed in a clear, forcible and convincing manner the questions of imperialism, militarism and trusts. He severely arraigned the Republican party, and clearly demonstrated that the adoption of its policies upon these questions would cost the American people many millions of dollars and the loss of the lives of thousands of our soldiers each year.

Hon, George L. Browning, of Madison county, was then introduced by Judge West, and in a speech of forty minutes discussed the issues of the campaign in an eloquent, logical manner.

Congressman Lassiter was present, and delivered a short but elegant address, urging upon the people the importance of devoting a portion of their time to the consideration of the important questions which now confront the American people for their decision.

A Bryan, Stevenson and Lassiter club was then organized, with about fifty members, by electing Col. B. W. L. Holt president and B. F. Gwaltney secretary.

TWO WEEKS' HARD PRACTICE.

The Team Promises to be Heavier and Stronger Than Last Season. The Coaches and Captain Satisfled With the Outlook.

(Special Dispatch to The Times.) UNIVERSITY OF VIRGINIA, VA., September 29 .- After two weeks' practice it is evident that Virginia has improved as rapidly as could be expected. Aithough only the rudiments of the game have been attempted, the wiseacres are trying to pick out the best material.

The squad, which numbered thirty men at the first practice on Monday, September 15th, has increased, until now upwards of fifty men don canvas and moleskins

Coaches Hoxton and Cocke and Captain Lloyd are well satisfied with the outlook thus far. The number of candidates is as great as was expected, and the quality seems to be all right. In size and weight the candidates excel, and if everything goes well the rush-line should be heavier than that of last year.

the candidates excel, and if everything goes well the rush-line should be heavier than that of last year.

The object of the work thus far has been to develop wind and speed. Very little attention has been given to formation. The coaches have spent the greater part of the time getting acquainted with each individual and in giving each candidate individual instructions which were best suited to develop his natural abilities.

LINE MEN WANTED.

Line men are especially sought after, for there are a number of gaps in the 'Varsity line to be filled. Captam Lloyd, at left tackle, is back. So is Haskell, right guard, and Taylor, left end. But the other four men are missing. Summersgill has gone to New Orieans to coach the Tulane University eleven. Ben Willis has returned to college, but will not play. Montgomery has the first call on Norfleet's place at center. Other notable losses of the team this fall will be Harry Gerstle, who made the touchdown on Pennsylvania; McGill, the plucky little end rush, and "Bill" Shibley, who made the brilliant runs in the Virginia-Lehigh game, in Richmond, on last Thanksgiving Day.

Waters, of the Episcopal High School, appears to have thus far outclassed all aspirants for right tackle. If he keeps up the work he has already done, he is a sure winner. He weighs about 165 pounds, the work he has already done, he is a sure winner. He weighs about 15 pounds, and with two years' experience on the Episcopal High School eleven, coupled Episcopai figh School elevel, coupled with this year's coaching, he ought to fill the place very acceptably. Other promising candidates for tackie are Williams, of St. Albans School; Cook, of last year's scrub, and Evans, of the Washington, D. C., High School.

FOR CENTER.

Ere center Manuferment and Warwick

For center, Montgomery and Warwick are the only applicants and, as stated above, the former is making the best showing.

Muliford, of Bridgeton, N. J., Houston Muliford, of Bridgeton, N. J., Houston and Woods are trying for right guard, and Hurt and Shalleross for left guard.

J. C. Bride, of the University of Callfornia, who looks like Arthur Hillebrand, of Princeton, is a candidate for right end.

McCall, of last year's second eleven, is also doing good work for this position.

To the great delight of all, Albert Mallory, of Memphis, Team, a member of boils the Varsity fortial and basebalteams of last season, returned to college eams of last season, returned to college this week, and will try for quarter. The other candidates for this position are Tut-wiler, Deffenbaugh, Moran and Mason. THE HALF BACKS.

CHICAGO, Sept. 29.—Twelve men faced Powell in the opening inning of the first game, seven of them scoring on four er-rors and five hits. Chicago made no more runs. The second game was a pitchers' battle between Sudhoff and Griffith, At-tendance 1 200 THE HALF BACKS.

Virginius Dabney, late of St. Albans, has stepped into Geretie's shoes and is putting up a great game at right half-back. His running mate is Benet, a son of Judge W. Christie Benet, of Charles-ton, S. C. The other candidates for the half-back positions are Burnley Lankford, of Norfolk, formerly of Richmond College; Durant Caurch, of the Washington (D. C.) High School, and Johnson, of the Episcopal High School.

TOPEKA JOE IN MANCHESTER

Persistent Rumor That He Is in Hiding Near the City.

SNATCH - THIEF AT WORK.

Mrs, Turpin Loses Her Purse-Baptist Meet at Branch's Church-New Drug Firm-Church Services, News, Personal and Brief.

Manchester Bureau, Richmond Times No. 1102 Hull Street, Beattle Block.

The town of Manchester was aroused yesterday morning by the report that "Topeka Joe," the Williamsburg bank robber, who escaped from the Richmond jail, had been seen in the city. Rapley has been reported as seen in many parts of the State recently, but especially per-sistent has been the rumor that he was an hiding near Manchester.

About II o'clock yesterday morning a man answering in every detail the description of the escaped bank robber, entered powell's bar on Seventh Street, accompa-nied by a "pal," a tall, lean man, with weak-looking eye, wearing a slouch hat. They at once attracted attention. The man supposed to be "Topeka Joe" were his hiat publied well over his face, but absent-mindedly removing it, a large piece of court-plaster, covering the scar on his forehead, was revealed. White in the bar they talked with each other closely, and were evidently keeping well aware of all that happened around. They seemed most in taguing the place to look well in both directions before entering the street. Captain Lipscomb, chief of police, says he has no doubt but that the man was the escaped prisoner.

The police of Richmond were telephoned at once of the presence of the men and put the lookout. The officers spent mos the morning in search of the men, who mysteriously disappeared after leav ng the saloon.

The officers of the Manchester force were on the trail yesterday afternoon and hate into the night but their search was not rewarded, as both men disappeared as strangely as they appeared. However, they have not given up, and will continue to work the case.

SNATCH THIEF. A purse was snatched from Mrs. Mary G. Turpin last night on Ninth Street, while she was returning to her home about 9 o'clock.
